

Supermarket policies on the use of GM animal feed in own-brand products, August 2006

	Milk	Other Dairy	Fresh Pork 	Fresh Beef	Fresh Lamb	Eggs	Chicken	Turkey	Farmed Fish (trout and salmon)	Customer service replies
Marks & Spencer										List of products provided but does not mention eggs
Co-op				Aberdeen Angus beef, Scotch beef	New Zealand Lamb					Detailed letter on GM policy but no list of products
Waitrose	Goats' milk			Hereford and Aberdeen Angus beef	Dorset and New Zealand lamb					List of products provided
Sainsburys*	GM-free range in 200 stores		Outdoor reared pork and bacon	Taste the Difference 21-day matured beef and Traditional beef		Free range only				List of products provided
Morrisons*					New Zealand lamb					Standard letter did not list non-GM fed products
Asda										Standard letter did not list non-GM fed products
Somerfield										List of products provided, but does not mention turkey
Iceland										List of products provided
Tesco										Standard letter did not list non-GM fed products
Budgens								Fresh turkey pieces		No details on non-GM fed products – referred customer to Friends of the Earth

 = Specifies that GM animal feed must not be used  = No guarantee that GM animal feed is not used

* Sainsburys and Morrisons did not respond to the Friends of the Earth survey, so responses to customer service enquiries and letters to other organisations were used.

 does not include cured products such as bacon, unless stated otherwise