

Opportunities for local group campaigning – 2008-2009

This excludes local site battles, regional campaigns and on-going opportunities (e.g. Shop Local First).

	Opportunities for the group (These are typically larger actions on priority campaigns that are best carried out by several people working together. They are publicised through mailings to coordinators)	Opportunities for individual campaigners (These are typically actions that can be carried out by group members individually. They are publicised through local campaigner networks.)
