

Friends of the Earth
Rights and Justice Team

Training workshop on the new PLANNING ACT 2008

The Planning Act 2008 is now law and will affect all major infrastructure projects such as roads, airports, power stations and hazardous waste facilities.

There will be big changes to the planning process regarding your democratic right to be heard.

Use our workshop, led by Hugh Ellis, to learn more about:

- Changes to the planning system
- How it will affect local campaigning
- Opportunities for activism and having your say

4th July 2009
2-5pm

NCVO Centre, 8 All Saints Street, London
