

Friends of the Earth

Youth and education training day - 24 September 2005

Introduction

Facilitators:

Claudia Sartori: Part of the Capacity Building team and support local group members who provide environmental education. Facilitated after school youth group for 16-18 year olds and helped out with wildlife clubs through local city farm. Vicki Felgate: Youth & Education Coordinator producing materials for teachers, youth workers and local group members. Worked in Africa training teachers and later worked as a project coordinator for the British Trust for Conservation Volunteers.

Delegates:

Stella Goddard, Victoria Harvey & Heather Fox (South Bedfordshire), Peter Meredith (Southwark), Penny Baker (Kingston), Natalie Delidjani (Norwich), Christiane Dehnhardt (Camden), Lawrence Maxwell & Lowelle Bryan (Luton), Sue Chapman (East Dorset), Gillian Storey & Paul Harris (Hemel Hempstead), Auriel Glanville (Merton).

Share experiences

What do you want to get out of this workshop?

- Opportunity to look at resources available.
- Learn how to set up communication and relationships with schools.
- To communicate and share information with young people and my local group.
- Raise young people's awareness of where they live.
- Methods for communicating the message creatively.
- Learning how to get the environment in to youth clubs.
- Explore partnership opportunities to spread the environmental message.
- Boost of enthusiasm.
- Methods to accommodate different age ranges.

Friends of the Earth Trust
England, Wales and Northern Ireland
National Office 26-28 Underwood Street London N1 7JQ
Tel 020 7490 1555 Fax 020 7490 0881 Email info@foe.co.uk Website www.foe.co.uk
Friends of the Earth Trust Limited is recognised as an independent research institute by the Economic and Social Research Council
Friends of the Earth Trust Limited Registered in London No 1533942 Charity Registered Number 281681